La Torre 2012 Brunello di Montalcino

Montalcino, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2023 - 2032

Bright red-ruby. Nicely ripe aromas of raspberry, red cherry syrup, minerals and rose petal are concentrated but fresh. Then juicy, intense and sharply delineated, with lovely lift to the very pure flavors of redberries, minerals and licorice. Knockout, silky-sweet wine that is at once ripe and vibrant, finishing with lovely aromatic persistence and noteworthy minerality. One of the best young La Torre Brunellos I remember; already irresistible now, but will repay cellaring.

Ian D'Agata. Tasting date: February 2017
